Banking Dashboard

Problem Statement:

Develop a basic understanding of risk analytics in banking and financial services and understand how data is used to minimise the risk of losing money while lending to customers.

Solution:

With our dashboards created using Power BI tools, the company can make data-driven decisions based on the applicant's profile. This helps determine whether the applicant is likely to repay the loan, allowing approval of the loan accordingly.